- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

Following graduation from law school in May 1999, I joined the Washington, D.C. law firm Wiley Rein & Fielding LLP (now Wiley Rein LLP) in October 1999, where I was an associate in the Election Law and Government Ethics practice group.

I was hired as Counsel to the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on House Administration in April 2002. In this capacity, I advised the Committee Chairman on legal and legislative matters relating to federal election and campaign finance laws and the continuity of Congress in the event of a catastrophic attack. Furthermore, as counsel, I reviewed complaints filed with the House Franking Commission and advised the Commission regarding the resolution of such complaints. Finally, I advised the Committee Chairman regarding the resolution of tort claims brought against the House of Representatives under the Federal Tort Claims Act.

In July 2005, I was hired as Chief Counsel to the U.S. Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, where I advised the Committee Chairman and Members of the Senate on all legal and legislative matters within the Committee's jurisdiction, including issues relating to federal elections, campaign finance laws, government ethics rules, recounts, election contests, the Federal Election Commission and the Election Assistance Commission, and lobbying reform. I also provided counsel and advice regarding the Standing Rules of the Senate and on contracts, agreements, and obligations of the U.S. Senate. I was also extensively involved in the drafting of proposed legislation to effectuate the merger between the U.S. Capitol Police and the Library of Congress Police.

I was sworn in as a Commissioner on the Federal Election Commission in July 2008. In this capacity, I am responsible for administering and enforcing the Federal Election Campaign Act and Commission regulations. During my tenure, the Commission has enacted significant rules relating to candidate solicitations, coordinated communications, federal election activity, and candidate travel and has issued advisory opinions setting forth the legal frameworks governing Super PACs, hybrid PACs, text message contributions, and internet political advertising. The Commission has also I have co-authored new procedures that afford enhanced rights and protections for individuals and organizations involved in Commission enforcement matters, audits, and advisory opinion requests. I have co-authored numerous statements of reasons relating to enforcement matters involving issues such as express advocacy, political committee status, coordination, and republication of campaign materials.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

At Wiley Rein LLP, my typical clients were corporations seeking advice regarding compliance with relevant election, campaign finance, lobbying, and government ethics laws. I also represented federal candidates who were the subject of enforcement matters before the Federal Election Commission. Since 2002, I have either been a staffer on Capitol Hill or a Commissioner on the Federal Election Commission and, thus, have not had clients in the traditional sense.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

With the exception of a brief period at the beginning of my career (during which my practice did not involve in-court litigation), I have spent the entirety of my legal career as a staff member for the U.S. Congress and Federal Election Commission. I, therefore, have not had occasion to appear in court.

- i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- 1. federal courts: _____%
- 2. state courts of record: _____%
- 3. other courts: _____%
- 4. administrative agencies: _____%

- ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- 1. civil proceedings: _____%
- 2. criminal proceedings: _____%

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

As indicated above, I have not had occasion to appear in court due to the nature of my legal practice.

- i. What percentage of these trials were:
  - 1. jury: _____%
  - 2. non-jury: _____%

- e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

I have not practiced before the Supreme Court of the United States.

17. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
- b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

I have spent the large majority of my career as either a legislative branch employee or the commissioner of an independent regulatory agency. Thus, my experience has not been in court or directly litigating cases. However, as an FEC Commissioner, I have overseen numerous cases to which the Commission has been a party. In this capacity, I have been involved in developing litigation strategy and reviewing and editing briefs, motions, and other filings. During my tenure, among the most significant cases involving the Commission include:

- 1. Citizens United v. FEC, 558 U.S. 310 (2010). Supreme Court of the United States; Hon. John G. Roberts, Hon. Samuel A. Alito, Hon. Stephen G. Breyer, Hon. Ruth Bader Ginsburg, Hon. Anthony M. Kennedy, Hon. Antonin G. Scalia, Hon. Sonia M. Sotomayor, Hon. John Paul Stevens, and Hon. Clarence Thomas.

In this case, the Supreme Court struck down, on First Amendment grounds, legal prohibitions against corporations making independent expenditures and electioneering communications.

18. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

As an FEC Commissioner, I am responsible for administering and enforcing the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and its implementing regulations. In this capacity, I have considered and voted upon more than 1,200 closed enforcement matters and more than 400 matters resolved through alternative dispute resolution. Moreover, during that span, the Commission has issued more than 220 advisory opinions. The Commission has also enacted significant rules relating to candidate solicitations, coordinated communications, federal election activity, and candidate travel and has issued advisory opinions setting forth the legal frameworks governing Super PACs, hybrid PACs, text message contributions, and internet political advertising. I have co-authored new procedures that afford enhanced rights and protections for individuals and organizations involved in Commission enforcement matters, audits, and advisory opinion requests. I have also co-authored numerous statements of reasons relating to enforcement matters involving issues such as express advocacy, political committee status, coordination, and republication of campaign materials.

While serving as Chief Counsel to the U.S. Senate Rules Committee and Counsel to the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on House Administration, I was heavily involved in the development of major lobbying reform and election reform legislation and provided counsel to committee members on campaign finance, election, and lobbying reform issues.

I have never performed lobbying activities.

19. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

I have not taught any courses. However, as reflected in my response to Question 12(d), I have on occasion been a guest lecturer on the subject of campaign finance laws.

20. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

Other than my participation in the Thrift Savings Plan and the Federal Employee Retirement System, I do not have any arrangements for deferred income or future benefits from previous business relationships.

21. Outside Commitments During Court Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

I have no plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment in the future.

22. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

See attached Financial Disclosure Report.

23. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Statement of Net Worth.

24. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation, and financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

If confirmed, I will recuse in any litigation where I have ever played a role and will evaluate recusal in all cases involving the Federal Election Commission. I would also recuse myself in matters involving my family, close friends, and my own financial interests. Lastly, I will evaluate any other real or potential conflict, or relationship that could give rise to an appearance of conflict, on a case-by-case basis and determine appropriate action, with the advice of parties and their counsel, including recusal where necessary.

- b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

If confirmed, I will carefully review and address any real or potential conflicts by reference to 28 U.S.C. § 455, Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, and any and all other laws, rules, and practices governing such circumstances.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each.

At the House and Senate and as a Commissioner on the Federal Election Commission, I have not worked in settings where pro bono legal work has been readily available. Nevertheless, I have sought opportunities to serve the disadvantaged in the local and larger communities, primarily through my church congregation. For instance, I have participated in coat and blanket drives for Syrian refugees that resulted in thousands of boxes of coats and blankets being collected; a similar drive to aid the victims of Hurricane Sandy in 2012; and efforts to supply hygiene kits and blankets to local charities. In addition, every year, my congregation participates in a program called Gifts of the Heart, where thousands of clothing items, toys, books, appliances, and other household items are collected and organized and then made available for free to underserved individuals and families in the community. I have been a donor to and participant in this effort for many years.

26. Selection Process:

- a. Please describe your experience in the entire judicial selection process, from beginning to end (including the circumstances which led to your nomination and the interviews in which you participated). Is there a selection commission in your jurisdiction to recommend candidates for nomination to the federal courts? If so, please include that process in your description, as well as whether the commission recommended your nomination. List the dates of all interviews or communications you had with the White House staff or the Justice Department regarding this nomination. Do not include any contacts with Federal Bureau of Investigation personnel concerning your nomination.

On May 20, 2017, I was contacted by the White House Counsel's Office and informed that I was one of the candidates being considered to fill a judicial vacancy on the United States District Court of the District of Columbia. Since that time, I have been in contact with officials from the White House Counsel's Office and the Office of Legal Policy at the Department of Justice. On September 11, 2017, the President submitted my nomination to the Senate.

- b. Has anyone involved in the process of selecting you as a judicial nominee discussed with you any currently pending or specific case, legal issue or question in a manner that could reasonably be interpreted as seeking any express or implied assurances concerning your position on such case, issue, or question? If so, explain fully.

No.
